A Message from The Very Revd Michael Sadgrove,
Dean of Durham

After Sunday offers a fresh and exciting vision for the church and how it engages with the whole of life.

As baptised Christians our faith becomes real to us in the day-to-day struggles and joys of daily life. That means our work, our leisure, our relationships, all that is both ordinary and extraordinary, and that belongs to the weeks and months and years of being alive as human beings who follow Jesus.

As Chair of the After Sunday Trustees I would like to invite you to support this imaginative venture and help it to grow into a vital force for good in the church and in the world. One of the church fathers said: 'the glory of God is a human being fully alive'. After Sunday aims to affirm this fullness of life that God longs to see in each of us and in the places where we live and work.

Thank you in anticipation for your support and encouragement.

After Sunday for You

Do you ever wonder...

- What the connection is between Sunday and the rest of the week?
- What God wants you to do with your life and work?
- How to respond in faith to the challenging situations we meet each day?
- How your faith really can make a difference in the world?
- If there is more to life than just juggling disconnected parts?

After Sunday is a way to help you to:

- Discover what your calling is as a disciple of Christ and how to live it out every day.
- Recognise God at work in the world and to find ways to join in with His mission
- Find new hope and possibilities for yourself and others in the middle of everyday challenges
- Live a more integrated life where all the parts make sense together
- Find the connection between worship and work

The courses have been excellent, a remarkable personal journey, giving an awareness of vocation, recognising and exploring how God is present through all aspects of life. They have been enlightening, interesting, stimulating and encouraging – highly recommended.

After Sunday for Your Church

After Sunday is a resource for the whole church and offers practical ways to:

- Help the 'gathered' church to continue to be the church when it is 'dispersed' in the world
- To encourage a community of people who take their faith seriously and discover the Kingdom of God in their daily living
- Enable people to learn by valuing their experience and encounter with God in daily work and life
- Encourage people on a Sunday to feel affirmed and supported in their daily life and work
- Support a network of After Sunday contacts to act as a bridge with their own congregations

Website

After Sunday's website offers a range of ideas, thoughts, resources and interactive activities, including a discussion forum.

After Sunday has enabled the Parish of Blackwell to develop shared ministry in innovative ways. The development of 'Have you seen a Burning Bush?' is an initiative that has freed and encouraged people to discover a sense of vocation that relates to the whole of life.

Please complete the After Sunday Supporter form overleaf and return the form to us at the address on the back.

Thank you

After Sunday is a fresh and liberating approach to developing the ministry of all. It gives people the theology and the confidence to see God at work in communities, in workplaces, in families and helps them to take responsibility for the gospel there in daily life
